TROUT BUM DIARIES: PATAGONIA

Experience the journey, adventure and lifestyle of four trout bums on an epic five month fly fishing expedition across Patagonia. Do 5 pound brook trout in a creepy forest appeal to you? Broken windows and snapped axles? Blisters that would cause most fly fishers to stop fishing and hang up the waders. Uniquely-colored brown trout from a windswept spring creek? Stripping mice for big rainbows with the ghosts of Butch Cassidy and Sundance Kid? Horse-packing into remote rivers? Tierra Del Fuego and the sea-run browns of the south? Enter a new breed of fly fishing entertainment.
